R. P. Bird, the present county trea surer of Yamhill county, was last county convention for state senator.

Hon. L. D. Thoman, civil service commissioner has tendered his resignation to president Cleveland, which has been accepted to take effect November the 1st.

The special election in Yambill county is one of considerable importante and will likely be somewhat interesting, as the county is so evenly divided and the time for canvassing is so

Says a Boston democratic paper: Are the democrats of the country losing hearty feeling outside of local issues? Is the administration freezing them? Toe many of the oldest and most honored men of the party have been completely frozen out. Seven months after the inauguration of a democratic president many of the high offices of the republic and a large majority of the responsible positions at the disposal of the administration remain in republican hands; and still there is no sign of change. The questions to be considered are these: How many thousands of guaranteed them by constitutional and democrats in Ohio sat down on election day disappointed and disgusted? How many are going to sit down with the same feeling in New York and Massa-

THE SPECIAL SESSION.

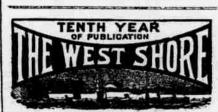

The special session of the Oregon legislature will convene at Salem November 9th, 1885. Each individual member should be anxious to get another chance at legislation, in order to undo the blunders that were, in part at least, of his doing last spring. Twenty days, the period allotted to the special session, unless indeed the abounding philanthropy of members should induce them to stay beyond the limit withour pay, is time sufficient for considering the measures of "vital importance to the people" which induced the governor to call the legislature together, and if judiciously, temperately and carefully used will do much in the way of expunging, if not from the records, for the balance of 1885, including the measures that were, in part at least, of his doing last spring. The object of this Association is to provide endown en's for living members as well as bruefits for families of deceased members, at the least cost consistent with percet security, by issuing ondown ents as well as death benift certificates.

The plan co-braces two forms, lite and death. One pays at the death of a memoer and the other pays in two equal installments during life. The association is operated on the mutual plan. It has no stock-holders to absorb its earnings, and no trustees among whom to divide its surpus.

The total membership of the association now amounts to nearly 14,000 with a steady increase each mouth. The association has disbursed to dat. $670,038.02 in benefits to the legaters of deceased members, and on maturing coupons. Is leaning from fiftee to twenty thousand per mouth to living members.
